The photo exhibition titled „Generations” is organized within the framework of the project „Festival of Generations”, implemented by Platform AGORA – branch Burgas, High School „Episkop Konstantin Preslavski”, Burgas, Bulgaria and the High School Luleburgaz, Turkey. The focus of the exhibition is on the diverse generation touch points, discovered in the process of communication and joint work on the project activities: generations` meetings, going back to their roots and family history through the viewer, the language and the memories/stories of the past. Once more, the exhibition demonstrates the power of art to bring people together.

Participants in the exhibition are students from 9 to12 grades from school „Episkop Konstantin Preslavski”, Burgas, Bulgaria and the High School Luleburgaz, Turkey. They submitted 30 author and archive photos taken and collected in the process of project activities implementation.

The joint photo exhibition will be officially launched within the two editions of the Festival of Generations in Luleburgaz and Burgas and will be on display in schools on the territory of the cross-border region.
